

Your Privacy

This practice is committed to providing quality health care and service. As part of this, we have a policy to protect your privacy that complies with privacy legislation*

All health information that is collected and used by this practice is protected by this policy.

Our Privacy Policy advises you -

- That we need your consent to collect information about you.
- That you can request access to the information we hold about you.
- That you may discuss any concerns that you have about how we handle your information with your doctor or the practice staff.
- How your information will be used by us and whom we may need to disclose it to. This may include an organisation providing assistance for improving the administration of the practice.

We ask that you assist us in providing the best possible health care to you by making sure that the information we have is accurate and up to date.

Ask your doctor or see our reception staff if you would like more information about our Privacy Policy or the National Privacy Principles and Health Records and Information Privacy Act, 2002.
